ATTACHMENT A

I, Raymond Romano, Jr., am a Postal Inspector with the United States Postal Inspection Service. Based upon my investigation and my discussions with other individuals involved in this investigation, I have knowledge of the following facts:

1. In or about February of 2006, Robert J. Desaro, (hereafter the "Defendant"), was working as a United States Postal employee at the New Jersey International Bulk Mail Center in Jersey City, New Jersey.

2. On February 27, 2006 Postal Inspectors caused four parcels containing DVDs to be placed in the U.S. Mail, near Bay 25, a particular location for outgoing mail in the New Jersey International Bulk Mail Center. Postal Inspectors observed the Defendant take the four parcels into Bay 25. Inspectors observed the Defendant walking away from Bay 25 and also observed the Defendant putting three DVDs under his coat. Postal Inspectors immediately went into Bay 25 and recovered three of the test parcels in an opened and rifled condition.

3. The Defendant was immediately approached by the Postal Inspectors and the Defendant gave the Postal Inspectors the three DVDs hidden under his coat. Postal Inspectors identified the DVDs as coming from the test parcels.
